

What does it mean to be ready for Kindergarten in KCKPS?

I know numbers 0 to 9.

I know how to sort objects by color, shape or size.

I can pair one object with another.

I count verbally in order up to 20.

I know words that rhyme.

I know the first sound in familiar words.

I recognize my name and the letters in my name in print.

I know some upper and lowercase letters not from my name.

I can write my first name without help.

I can hop, jump, run, and climb with control and coordination.

I can use tools from classroom and home to complete activities.

I respond to questions about my behaviors in school.

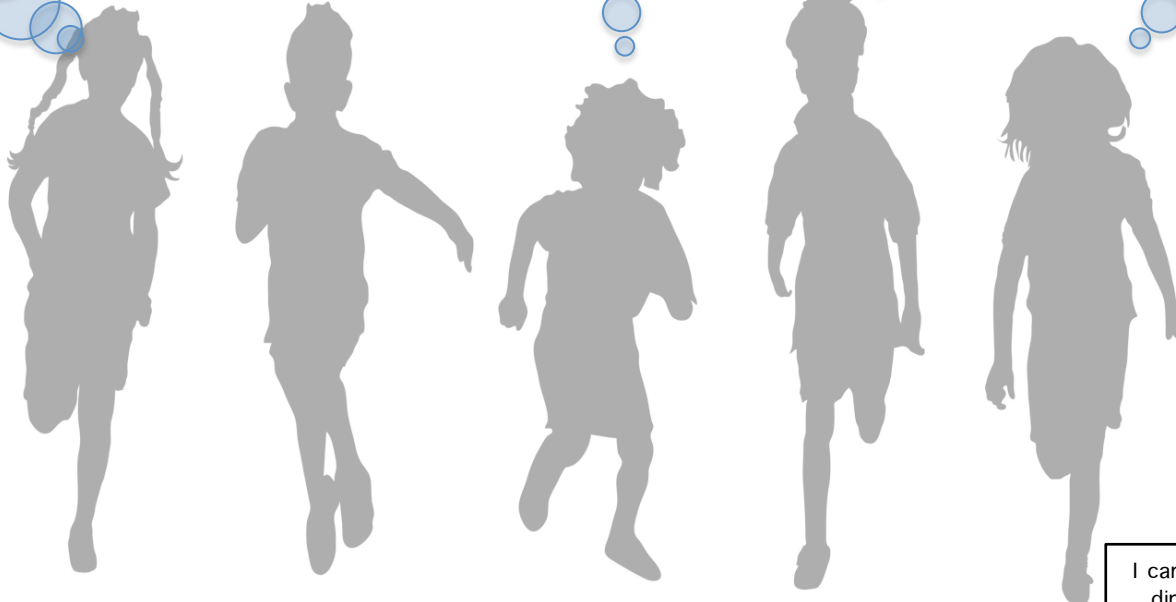

I handle transitions positively with little support from adults.

I can hold a conversation.

I know how to hold books right side up and turn single pages.

I know the difference between pictures and words.

I can answer questions about details in a book.

I can say my legal first name, last name, age, and caregiver/parent's name.

I can show what it means to be a friend and respond like a friend to the needs of others.

I can take care of my needs (e.g., put dirty tissues in the trash, wash my hands, cover my mouth when I sneeze).
